Release Notes:

The original version of "Angel" needs no further introduction as its already been a big club smasher since released in mid March.

The remixes are now about to hit the clubs and of course we got something special everyone. Ripperton is behind the haunting and techno driven remix which definitely up there with his best work to date and Hot Since 82 does his thing and delivers a phat driving tech house remix sure to pack the floors around the globe.

To round the package of singer/songwriter Hayze has given us his wonderfull deephouse interpretation of the song and this will go down well for the early hours we reckon.
