Release Notes:

Tone Depth has been making music for many years but he doesn't seem to get older..... He just gets better and better. This is his 2nd release on Noir Music and I can assure you there's more to come in the near future. "Escape" contains 3 instrumental and very intense tracks. They are all cleverly built for the underground floors. They each have their own special signature and carry that powerful Tone Depth production level. Each track on this EP immediately made me "escape" into the music, took me on a journey and captivated my attention throughout the running minutes of each piece. I have been playing these tracks since the day I received them track by track and they really do grow on you (play for play) like great music always tend to do.
